WHAT IS YOUR NAME AND SPECIALTY OR FOCUS WITHIN MEDICINE? Roseline Dauphin-Baptiste, MD. Specialist in obstetrics and gynecology with emphasis on adolescent and women’s health, menopausal medicine, minimally invasive gynecological surgery, reparative gynecology.

EDUCATION (UNDERGRADUATE AS WELL AS MEDICAL SCHOOL) AND CERTIFICATIONS: Loyola University of Chicago; University of Illinois, Abraham Lincoln School of Medicine.

AWARDS/HONORS/PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS: Diplomate, American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology; fellow, American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

ARE YOU AFFILIATED WITH ANY LOCAL HOSPITALS? WHICH ONE(S)? Huntington Memorial Hospital, Pasadena; Providence Saint Joseph Medical Center, Burbank.

GREATEST PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENT: It is such a blessing to be involved in caring for women during their various “seasons,” and to engage them in being active participants in their own care. I feel privileged to have a role as their doctor, but more importantly as a trusted friend, counselor, and one that they can turn to in times of sadness and joy. That is my greatest reward.

CHARITABLE WORK: Counseling young adults on prevention of pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections.
